TCF Privacy Policy – Opt-Out Request

It is important you understand what information is affected if you choose to opt-out of sharing.

Fair Credit Reporting Act- Information Shared within the TCF Companies
Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act, you have the right to opt-out of sharing certain non-public personal information within the TCF companies.

To opt-out, print this page, check the 1st box under the "Fair Credit Reporting Act" section, complete and mail the form to the address indicated.

If you opt-out, we will not share non-public personal information we obtain from your application or information we obtain from consumer reporting agencies with other TCF companies. However, we will continue to share, within the TCF companies, your identification and contact information from your application.

We will also continue to share, within the TCF companies, information about our experiences or transactions with you. In addition, we will share your information with other TCF companies when you ask us to. This opt-out does not affect our right to share your non-public personal information with companies outside the TCF companies.

Information Shared Outside of the TCF Companies
You also have the right to opt-out of sharing your non-public personal information with non-public personal information with non-TCF companies.

To opt-out, print this page, check the "Sharing Customer Information with Third Parties" box, complete and mail the form to the address indicated.

If you opt-out, we will not share non-public personal information we collect about you. However, we will continue to share non-public personal information as described under "Sharing Customer Information for Service and Joint Marketing Reasons and When Permitted or Required by Federal or State Law." This opt-out does not affect our right to share your non-public personal information within the TCF companies.

Marketing
You have the right to opt-out of TCF companies using information received from an affiliate TCF company for marketing.

To opt-out, print this page, check the 2nd box under the "Fair Credit Reporting Act" section, complete and mail the form to the address indicated.

If you opt-out, TCF companies will not use information they receive from an affiliated TCF company to market products and services to you.

If you do not want us to share your information, complete this form and mail it to us. (For joint accounts, a request must be made for each account holder, but you may use this form for all account holder requests. Ensure the addresses of all account holders are listed on this form.)
If you have completed and mailed us a card in prior years, you do not need to send us another one.

Sharing Customer Information with Third Parties

☐ You do not want TCF to share your non-public personal information with third parties who are not affiliated with TCF. This does not apply to our right to share your non-public personal information as discussed under "Sharing of Customer Information for Service and Joint Marketing, and When Permitted or Required by Federal or State Law".

Fair Credit Reporting Act Sharing Consumer Reports and Certain Application Information with TCF Companies

☐ You do not want TCF to share non-public personal information in your consumer reports or in your application. This does not apply to our right to share your identifying and contact information from your application with other TCF companies. We will also continue to share, within the TCF companies, information about our experiences or transactions with you. In addition, we will also continue to share your information with other TCF companies when you ask us to.

☐ Do not allow any company in the TCF Companies to use my personal information received from an affiliate to market to me.
